COMMUNICATED. The Managers of the Orphan Society feeling sure that if the wants of the Institution were known to the citizens generally, it would receive the aid so necessary for its existence, determined at their last meeting to lay its condition before the public through the medium of the newspapers, which in this favored lamb are open to all, and thus enable the churitable to bestow their mite upon an object so calculated to touch the heart. The citizens of Lexington purchased a house and lot, the Legislature granted the society a Charter, and the children havo been supported by contributions and annual subscriptions of the benevulent from the first, the Managers have been forced to solicit nid so often, that they are reluctant to continue to do so, and the last are , aged too iew for the maintenance of the finoily. It is with the hope that this lustitution will not be permitted to perish, when its objects and wants are known to those residing in the country, that the Managers place them before a generous people and plead the cause of helpless infaney. TO THE IMPARTIAL PUBLIC.

VARIOUS rumors being of late very industri nusly circulated, designed and statted to prejudice the moral character of the Sisters of Charity, who conduct St. Catharine's Female Academy in this city, and of the Rev. Edward McMahan, who is now absent from the city, calculated to injure their school, if credited, I have taken the trouble to ascertain the origin of those rumors, and have found that they have no hasis in truth or probability; and consequently must be the result of eovy, malice, or reckless wickedness.

Having female relatives and others under my guardianship, who are daily inquates of that institution, and will so continue, and whose reputation is dearer to me than their lives or mine, and knowing the heavenly and practical virsues of the Sisters of Charity, and the extraordinary purity of conduct and moral worth uf the Rev. E. McMa-han, I feel justified, upon my own personal responsibility, and without the suggestion of any hu-man being, to state, that if any decent individual will make a charge of immoral conduct, in any definite form, against the said Sisters of Charity, or either of them, or against the said Rev. E. McMahan, I will and do promunce such individual a wicked calminiator of invocence; and I will zard all that I am worth, or ever expect to be, imon the issue.

I would not thus obtrude myself upon the pullic, if it were not for the cruel and unremitted efforts which are made to poison the public mind against the religion in which it was my fortune to be born & educated, & upon which those nearest and deatest to me, in common with a large may rity of christendom, rely for eternal salvation, and to persecute and deprive Catholics of the liberty of conscience, by rendering them, and their pas-tors and institutions odious and suspected, and by slandering meritorious and helphyss females of that demonination. The subjuined statement of the Han. James E. Davis, Mayor of the City of Lexington, and Charlton Hum, Esq. and the Han. Fielding I. Turner, will, I am sure, he satisfactory to a just comi

THOMAS M. IHCKEY. Lexington, 24th July, 1836.

Certain reports having been circulated prejudi certain reports naving neen chemand prejunt-cial to the moral character of the Rev. Edward McMahon, and calculated in injuse that highly respectable and useful institution in this city, con-ducted by the Sisters of Charity, the undersigned visited the school to learn what foundation there was for said reports; they had known Mr. Mc Ma hen intimately for several years, and had always considered him a pions christian, and a most excellent man, and two of us had been patrons of the institution, and they are gratified to say, that in the investigation of the facts that gave rise to the rumors unfavorable to Mr. McMahon, nothing was heard enleulated to weaken, in the slightest degree, our entire and unqualified confidence in the purity of his life as a man or a christian, and in the institution.

He had a private and unreserved interview with the females of the school, and learnt the fol-Inwing facts from them: That on the evening of the 21st inst. the female boarders at the school, who oumbered about thirty, and occupied two up per rooms in the dormitory, were about retiring to bed, having in the room a lighted lamp; two small girls about 7 and 10 years of age were in the lower room with one of the Sisters, having al so a light. The sister left the room for a few in mants, when some ona came to the door, which was unlocked, and knocked loudly at it, and ther knocked loudly at the window shutter. tle girs ran up stairs and told what they had heard,—some of the younger girls commenced screaming, which became contaginus, and senera of them screamed and upset the lamp. This oc-curred about eight o'clock in the evening, some twenty yards from the main dwelling occupied by the aisters, in a populous part of the city, where the screams of a single female would bring hundreds to her assistance in a few moments. Mr. McMahnn at the time, was engaged at vespers, or evening service in the community in a different house. All the girls, who are of various ages, from six to sixteau, declared primptly and indig-nantly, that nothing occurred to create the slight-est suspicion that Mr. McMahon had any agency in tha alarm. They expressed the opinion, in which we fully concur, that the knocking was the work uf some mischievous boy, black or white, who wished to amuse himself by alarming them, the yard being thrown open to the street, by the buildings of the church now in progress.
